Information for the Owner of the Historic Quilt and Quilt Image:

The American Quilt Study Group (AQSG) sponsors a biennial Quilt Study that serves as a way to learn about our quilt heritage and to stimulate interest in quilt history. Each biennial Quilt Study focuses on a specific era of quilt making. Based on the theme, AQSG members who participate select an historic quilt to study and create a small study quilt based on the historic quilt.

The participant will also write a brief description of the project and what they learned. The small study quilts will be exhibited at the annual AQSG Seminar in 2021. Selected study quilts will be included in a multi-year traveling exhibit to museums and other venues. A sign with an image of the historic quilt and with credit to the historic quilt owner will be included with the study quilt at exhibits.
